Mandatory Internship - Employer Branding & Employee Engagement (m/f/d) - REF100683S

Náplň práce

Help shape how Continental is experienced as an employer.

Our Global Employer Branding team is bringing our new Employer Value Proposition to life across Continental Tires.

During your mandatory internship at our headquarters in Hannover, starting in February 2027 or later, you will support a variety of Employer Branding initiatives and contribute to impactful global projects for ideally six months. We are looking for someone who brings curiosity, fresh perspectives, and a proactive mindset, and who is excited to take ownership and make a real contribution within an international environment.

Your tasks

- Support the global activation of our new Employer Value Proposition
- Develop communication materials, presentations and activation formats for different audiences and markets
- Discover and develop employee stories and proof points that make our employer promise tangible
- Support our Employee Advocacy program and global community
- Contribute to workshops, research and international stakeholder projects
- Work with colleagues across HR, Communications, Marketing and Talent Acquisition as well as our external agencies

Profil kandidáta

Your profile:

- You are studying communications, marketing, media, social sciences, HR or a related field
- You can turn complex topics into clear, engaging communication
- You bring curiosity, initiative and a structured way of working
- You enjoy taking responsibility and contributing your own ideas
- You are confident with PowerPoint and interested in AI-enabled ways of working
- You have very good English skills; German is an advantage

You don't need to be an employer branding expert yet. Curiosity, good judgment and the ability to learn quickly matter more to us.
