

Senior HR IT & AI Consultant (SAP SuccessFactors) - REF80990P

Vos activités

Are you an experienced SAP SuccessFactors professional, especially in Employee Central or another core module, looking to take your impact to the next level? Join our dynamic global HR IT team at ContiTech and play a key role in driving digital transformation across our HR landscape.

We're looking for a proactive, solution-oriented individual who combines deep technical knowledge with a passion for project leadership and innovation. If you thrive in a collaborative, international environment and want to help shape the future of HR systems, we'd love to hear from you.

What You'll Do

As a key member of our global HR IT team, you will:

- Lead strategic HR IT initiatives with a primary focus on SAP SuccessFactors Employee Central.
- Drive the implementation and enhancement of solutions across the broader HR IT landscape, including both SAP and non-SAP applications supporting Talent Management, Learning & Development, Feedback processes, Travel Management, Document Management, and Workforce Analytics.
- Own the full project lifecycle: from roadmap definition to rollout, including stakeholder alignment, vendor coordination, and internal resource management.
- Drive innovation by exploring and implementing AI-powered features and automation within SAP SuccessFactors and beyond.
- Optimize user experience by improving business processes and UI/UX design.
- Promote global collaboration by sharing best practices and fostering knowledge exchange across our HR communities.

What Sets This Role Apart

- SAP SuccessFactors at the Core: Your deep knowledge of Employee Central or other SAP SuccessFactors modules will be central to shaping our global HR IT landscape.
- Strategic Influence: Help define the digital HR roadmap and contribute to high-visibility initiatives.
- Innovation-Driven: Explore real-world applications of AI and automation in HR systems.
- Global Reach: Collaborate with diverse, talented teams across regions and cultures.
