

Intern - Marketing & Communications, Year-Round

Ihre Aufgaben

HOW YOU WILL MAKE AN IMPACT

We're looking for a creative and social self-starter to join our Marketing Communications team as a Communications Intern. In this role, you'll be responsible for helping us keep our internal and external audiences informed, engaged, and inspired.

You'll play a key part in gathering stories, creating engaging content, and helping tell Continental's story – from weekly newsletters to social media updates and local CSR events.

Key Responsibilities:

Internal News:

- Gather stories, team updates, and other content weekly
- Write, edit, and format the internal newsletter for company-wide distribution
- Assist Internal Communications Manager with maintenance of intranet pages
- Ensure bulletin boards and all other communications tools are maintained with pertinent, up-to-date information

Social Media Assistance:

- Gather and create engaging content for the USA Facebook page
- Schedule posts and monitor activity to keep the community active and informed
- Report on key analytics

Internal Signage Updates:

- Coordinate with teams to gather up-to-date information
- Design and post updates across internal screens or bulletin boards

CSR Event Participation:

- Collaborate with the CSR (Corporate Social Responsibility) team
- Promote and participate in local events, volunteering, and social impact activities

OTHER of this role will consist of, but not be limited to, the following:

- Develop creative and project management skills by assisting with special initiatives such as videos shooting and editing and event planning assistance
- Support employee engagement activities and employee personnel events
- Assist in preparing information and materials for internal distribution
- Create PowerPoint presentations and Excel files, as needed
