

Technical HCM Consultant - Security and Fast Formulas

Feladatok

Join our dynamic Information Technology team as a Technical HCM Consultant in the Business Applications department. As Technical HCM Consultant with focus on Security and Fast Formulas, you are an essential part of the Oracle HCM implementation project and subsequent support and operations team. You are responsible for the design, implementation, administration, and optimization of the role and authorization concept within Oracle HCM. Moreover, you develop and maintain fast formulas and create custom reports in Oracle HCM.

Your key responsibilities are:

Security / Roles-based Permissions

- Design security model (roles, access, data policies) in Oracle HCM;
- Assign function/security privileges and entitlements;
- Manage user provisioning, role assignment, onboarding/offboarding;
- Integrate with identity/authentication systems (SSO, IAM);
- Perform SoD (segregation of Duties) analysis and develop mitigation actions;
- Conduct security testing and carry out periodic access reviews, audits, and compliance checks;
- Troubleshoot role/access issues, maintain versioning, and updates.

Fast Formulas Development

- Work closely with Global Process Owners, HR System Operations Specialists, and SMEs to translate business logic into formulas;
- Develop fast formulas for calculations, validations, eligibility, etc.
- Optimize performance and ensure formula efficiency;
- Deploy formulas through development, testing, and flow into production;
- Document formulas, assumptions, test cases, version history;
- Coordinate formula interactions with integrations, data model, and security.

Custom Reporting

- Design, develop, and maintain custom Oracle HCM reporting solutions;
- Work closely with Global Process Owners, HR System Operations Specialists, and SMEs to understand their needs, ensure data accuracy, and translate information into meaningful insights that help decision-making.
