Ihre Aufgaben

We are looking for a Key Account Manager who will drive strategic growth with leading OEMs, shape the future of our bus tire business, and play a key role in advancing our Tires As A Service (TAAS) transformation.

Your key responsibilities are:

- Manage OEM key accounts (IVECO & FUSO) with full responsibility for volume, revenue, and EBIT
- Secure and expand business opportunities to ensure long term profitability
- Lead RFQ processes and support budget planning, sales forecasting, and quarterly price updates
- Develop and coordinate the overall Bus tire business strategy
- Drive the TaaS strategy by collecting customer requirements and supporting new tool and solution development
- Support customer specific Tires As A Service (TAAS) for fleet business with OEMs as a strategic segment within the KAM team
- Foster long-term, technology driven partnerships and lead joint projects with OEMs and internal R&D teams
- Ensure customer satisfaction and quality performance in cooperation with Quality and Engineering team
- Represent the company at OEM events and coordinate internal customer visits
- Oversee tire orders for assigned accounts (e.g., pre series, testing), functionally guiding the customer service team

Ihr Profil

- University degree in Business & Analytics, Data Science / Applied Data Science, Industrial Engineering or Economics
- Several years of professional experience in Data Science, Digital Solutions, Field Service Operations, or related areas
- Several years of hands on experience in programming, data processing, modeling, and algorithm development; experience in sales related environments is an advantage
- Experience in the truck industry and/or truck tire business is highly desirable
- Experience in project management is preferred
- Fluent English skills required; German optional; Italian language skills are a plus
- Strong interpersonal and negotiation skills with a customer oriented mindset and the ability to build long term, trust based relationships
- Proven ability to work effectively in international and cross functional teams
