This position offers a unique opportunity to work independently in a small global team with a broad range of responsibilities and close interaction with the business.

Key Responsibilities

- Ensure secure execution of the tax reporting process (Budget, Forecast, Actual) in a global tax environment.
- Develop and implement concepts for tax risk management for ContiTech.
- Act as a proactive point of contact for German and international group companies to identify and mitigate tax risks early.
- Design and deliver training programs related to tax reporting and tax risk management processes.
- Work independently and quality-oriented within a small global team, maintaining close communication with operational business units.
- Leverage technology and digital tools to enhance tax reporting accuracy and risk management efficiency.
- Drive automation initiatives for tax processes and reporting workflows using SAP and Business Intelligence tools.
- Collaborate with IT teams to integrate tax compliance requirements into ERP systems and reporting platforms.

Profilja

- Completed degree in business administration or economics.
- Initial professional experience in an internationally operating industry or accounting firm; tax focus desirable.
- Solid knowledge of accounting standards (IFRS, local GAAP, tax balance sheet).
- High affinity for IT processes; strong MS Office skills; experience with SAP and tax reporting tools is highly desirable.
- Awareness of tax-related issues and their impact on globally operating companies.
- Initial experience with internal control or risk management systems/tools is an advantage.
- Interest in digitalization and ability to work with data analytics tools for tax risk monitoring.
- Fluency in English and German (written and spoken)
- Strong communication skills, team orientation, and intercultural
