Marketing Operations (SEO/GEO) Specialist

หน้าที่ความรับผิดชอบในงานของคุณ

The Marketing Operations Specialist is responsible to deliver actionable social-listening, SEO, and generative-engine optimization (GEO) insights for regional and global stakeholders. The role is expected to build reliable listening queries and dashboards, identify website optimization opportunities, coordinate technical and content improvements, monitor performance, and translate complex data into clear business recommendations.

Key Responsibilities:

1. Social-listening setup and analysis:

- Scope initiatives by validating markets, channels, keywords, hashtags, audiences, languages, and reporting needs.
- Build and configure listening queries in Sprout Social, including filters, segmentation, and exclusions.
- Test and refine queries to reduce noise and improve the relevance, coverage, and quality of results.\

2. Dashboards, reporting & quality assurance:

- Create, maintain, and enhance social-listening dashboards and recurring reports.
- Validate data quality, dashboard outputs, KPIs, calculations, and findings before delivery.
- Produce concise reports that explain trends, business impact, outcomes, and recommended actions.

3. SEO & GEO audits:

- Detect SEO and GEO opportunities through technical and content audits, keyword research, and daily tool reviews.
- Use Semrush, Screaming Frog, Google Search Console, and LLM visibility testing to identify issues.
- Translate findings into prioritized recommendations based on impact, urgency, and implementation effort.

4. Performance monitoring & stakeholder coordination:

- Monitor affected pages, dashboards, alerts, and agreed performance indicators.
- Coordinate requirements validation, report distribution, implementation follow-up, and issue resolution with markets and requesters.
- Review business impact, refine benchmarks, capture best practices, and improve future reporting cycles.

5. Website optimization & implementation support:
