

Global Marketing Standards & Processes Manager

Descrição da função

The Global Marketing Standards and Process Manager drives the definition, deployment and continuous improvement of consistent Marketing quality standards, governance principles and process-management practices across the organization. The role contributes to the development and maintenance of practical standards, process documentation, governance tools and adoption materials that enable Marketing to operate more consistently and efficiently.

Key Responsibilities:

1. Marketing Quality Standards

- Development and maintenance of the Marketing Quality Standards framework, helping to translate agreed expectations into clear, practical and measurable criteria for priority Marketing activities and deliverables.
- Coordinate quality assurance and review activities, collecting input, tracking adherence to standards, identifying recurring gaps and supporting follow-up on improvement actions with the relevant owners.
- Provide transparency on Marketing quality performance, preparing relevant KPIs, reports and insights to support continuous improvement discussions and leadership reviews

2. Marketing Process Excellence

- Maintain the Marketing process landscape and related documentation, working with process owners and subject-matter experts to capture process steps, roles, handovers, decision points and ownership.
- Support process improvement activities, applying agreed methodologies to help simplify workflows, reduce inefficiencies and improve consistency across Marketing processes.

3. Marketing Governance

- Support the maintenance of the Marketing governance framework, helping to document common principles, roles, responsibilities, decision rights, RACIs, controls and escalation mechanisms
- Coordinate governance input with Marketing experts and cross-functional partners, ensuring that emerging ways of working, including AI-enabled activities, are reflected in governance documentation where relevant.

4. Implementation, Adoption & Change Support

- Support the deployment of Marketing standards, processes and governance materials, preparing communication, training and onboarding content in coordination with the relevant owners.
- Maintain the single source of truth for Marketing processes,
